Once or twice in a lifetime, if we are lucky, we meet with greatness in a fellow man. Finding this greatness is finding an inspiration and a symbol, a fount of wisdom and a light, whereby we are brought nearer the knowledge of the mysteries of life.

True greatness exemplifies in itself those qualities we all want -- understanding, justice tempered with gentleness, nobility, dignity, honor.

Daily, a great man walks among us. And, quiet, unobtrusive, self-effacing, he has no desire for praise, no yearning for recognition of any kind.

Yet, we feel that we cannot leave these dear, familiar scenes without letting him know how extremely proud we are, what a wonderful privilege it is, to have as our friend,

FATHER ANSELM BIGGS.

FOREWORD

This pictorial review is prepared for you, the Graduates, as a remembrance of your four years spent at the ABBEY.

Much has happened to you and your classmates since you became ABBEYMEN. Remember when you first saw an issue of the SPIRE? How far away today seemed! Compared to the reality of those unforgettable days, this is merely a microscopic résumé in words and pictures.

But the Staff has attempted to be your faithful guardians of Abbey life, events, and heritage. Hence, the pictorial story attempts to grasp the spirit and atmosphere of Belmont Abbey College.

SPIRE tells the epic of your college life. It explains in a simple way the glory, the joy, the pride and the accomplishments of your tenure here. May this retrospection guide you to pleasant memories, to a better understanding of the complexity of collegiate life, and finally to a heartwarming smile of those years when the "golden days of youth" have vanished . . . .

CRUS

The 1954-55 edition of 'General' Al McClellan's Crusader basketball team was indeed one of which every Abbeyman could justly be proud. Starting the season like a house-a-fire, the Crusaders won seven of their first ten games and seemed under way to a successful year. However, the start of the second semester saw the loss of two key men and a six game slump followed. The 'General' shuffled his line-up in an attempt to floor a winning combination...And his attempts were not in vain! With the spirited floor play of boys like Taglieri O'Leary and Connors, the whole squad seemed to catch fire afresh. Marcil's deadly jump shot, rebounding by Coil, York and Harding, and the versatile play of co-captain Theberge brought the Crusaders out of their slump. They trounced the highly-touted Parris Island Marines in a thrill-a-minute classic, and closed the season by winning six of their last ten games for a final record of 15-13.

BASEBALL

H. A. Wheeler
Head Coach

The coming of spring found the Abbey athletic field filled with hopeful candidates for Coach "Humpy" Wheeler's 1955 Crusader baseball squad. Led by Captain Frank Ciucevich and returning lettermen Frain, Bambauer, Connors, and York, this year's team looked promising.

It is as yet too early to make predictions. But with such boys as mentioned above and new men with the calibre of Bob Grabez, Joe Camp, and Bill Peel the team surely has depth and strength. Under the competent tutelage of Coach Wheeler, we feel sure that the 1955 season will be a good one.

THE RAMBLERS

Hi, Mo nmy! Hi, Daddy!

Golly, think I can make it?

Up and at 'em, Bunny!

Double-over-and-under-ear-scratcher by Dowling.

"Fingers" Purcell abandons the piano for the court.

Peter Potter gets an A for effort.

My captain -- My hero!

The Pride of Georgetown set to drop one in.

Come one more step and I'll let you have it!

Schneider tenses before packed stands.

Moose cuts loose with a hook.

"And away we go!"

Hoiman da Great in action.

Sievers with a dribble, low and outside.

Your Teachers Had One Purpose

DUKE
POWER COMPANY
Serving the Piedmont Carolinas

Now that twelve years of lessons are behind, your teachers will probably admit it! There was just one big lesson they set out to teach you — that is, believe in yourself.

Self reliance, confidence, and initiative have made the Piedmont Carolinas one of the finest places you could possibly live and work in. So . . . congratulations, boys and girls. The stage is yours!

There's a "one and only" in refreshment, too
